Old Dominion Line Loses Its First Passenger as Ship Crashes With Nantucket

VESSELS COLLIDE IN FOG OFF DELAWARE COAST

Wireless Calls Aid Out of the Darkness—Vessels Speed to Scene of Disaster

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 30.—Forty-nine persons are unaccounted for today, following the loss at 1:40 o'clock this morning of the Old Dominion Line steamship Monroe off the southern coast of the Delaware and Maryland peninsula in a collision with the Merchants & Miners' Line steamship Nantucket. The Monroe carried a full complement of lifeboats and rafts and therefore many may have been saved, but it is feared the majority of the passengers went down with the ship. Wireless messages say the Nantucket picked up eighty-five of the Monroe's complement, including Captain Johnson.

The Nantucket with the survivors of the collision arrived at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. No passenger was fully clad. The women were in night dresses, and the majority of the men were in pajamas when the ship docked. Federal Industrial Commissioner James O'Connor, who was picked up in his underclothes, rushed down the gang plank searching for a phone to inform his wife in Washington of his safety. The majority of the survivors are ill from shock and exposure and it is feared five will die.

The liner Hamilton is standing by, and the cutter Onondaga and several others are rushing to the scene of the collision, which occurred in a dense fog. The Monroe was cut almost in half and sank within twenty minutes. The Nantucket was badly crumpled in the collision and is taking in water, but is believed to be safe. Both ships sailed from Boston.

The Monroe weighed seventy-eight hundred tons, was 344 feet long with beam of 45 feet. It was built in 1913. The life-saving capacity was 183.

Story of the Wreck
The Nantucket was steaming at half speed with the siren sounding through the fog at half minute intervals. The Monroe's siren was also plainly heard but in the mist the Nantucket's captain mistook the position of the other ship. Both Captains Berry of the Nantucket and Johnson of the Monroe were on their respective bridges when the crash came. Suddenly those on the Nantucket's deck saw the Monroe loom out of the fog scarcely a ship's length away. Capt. Berry reversed his engines and tried to pass astern the other boat, but it was too late. The Nantucket's prow crashed amidship into the Monroe and crunched its way deep into the doomed vessel's bowels with its own bows smashed and for the time wedged tightly. An instant later the powerful screw dragged backward and she drew off from the Monroe which keeled over and began taking in cataracts of water.

With hysterical prayers and curses the scantily clad passengers rushed on deck. Many were hurled from their berths and painfully hurt, and several were cut by the flying splinters. So quickly did the ship go down that many must have perished without having left their staterooms. The crew worked frantically but were able to get only one boat over the side before the ship rolled over and plunged downward. As she disappeared the boilers exploded with a muffled roar. As she inverted, the passengers and crew were left struggling for their lives. The majority of the saved wore life belts. Half of these were unconscious when dragged aboard the Nantucket.

The Nantucket's boats searched for two hours for survivors. The Nantucket, with her own bows admitting gallons of water, turned toward Norfolk only when it became evident there were no more survivors afloat. En route she met other rescue ships. She assured them she was able to make port. When she docked none but persons having business there were permitted on the decks.

The accident occurred in the Gulf stream, which is warmer than the surrounding ocean, thus undoubtedly saving many lives.

Railroad Manager Who Settled With His Men

Clifford S. Sims, vice-president and general manager of the Delaware & Hudson, a railroad which is little heard of outside the east, but is of considerable importance, has been forced to settle with his 5000 employees who went on strike the other day. The company capitulated and restored the men to work, agreeing also to every condition the union men made. It was one of the most quickly settled large strikes in the history of railroading.

After a year of negotiation 5000 men, including engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen and telegraphers, walked out when the company finally refused to restore to duty an engineer and a fireman charged with disobedience of orders. The men said they had refused to break a rule of the company at the direction of a minor official. The road was tied up at once and it moved few trains. The officials appealed to the National Board of Arbitrators, but the next day Mr. Sims met a committee of the unionists and signed an agreement. Immediately service on the road was restored fully. A strike, which might have been disastrous to employers and employees, lasted less than forty-eight hours.

CITRUS GROWERS MEETING IN ONTARIO

Convention Called for Mealy Bug Emergency—Bug Found Not Destructive

300 RANCHERS GATHER FROM OVER SOUTHLAND

15 Experts on Program—Citrus Subjects Will Be Up for Warm Discussion

ONTARIO, Jan. 30.—With fifteen experts on the program and three hundred ranchers of various sections in Southern California attending, the emergency citrus convention today discussed the mealy bug.

The meeting was called by State Horticulturist Cook when the battle against the mealy bug in the Upland district was at its height. Since the bug there was found not to be destructive, the investigation has enlarged its scope.

A clash is expected between County Horticulturist Pease, U. G. Laidlaw and the growers who blame each other for loss in the groves and useless expenditure of money in the fight. Other pertinent citrus subjects are scheduled for discussion.

MINERS TO DEMAND INCREASES

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—Demands for a ten per cent wage increase for coal miners were to be formulated today at a district meeting of the United Mine Workers of America. Patrick Gilday, district president, was to preside. In sounding the keynote of the meeting today Gilday declared that the operators, with whom their contracts expire April 1, are practically certain to grant the increase to be demanded. He predicted that the increases would go into effect by February 1, and that the same wage raises will be granted in other Pennsylvania districts. The operators today declared that the calling of a convention of the miners for February 24 was done in the hope of forcing a meeting of the wage scales committees of both sides will have been a month of disagreement over wages, which, according to the contracts, would give the men the right to strike without automatically breaking the agreements.

POPE HAS DIFFICULT PROBLEM
ROME, Jan. 30.—Pope Pius is again in troubled waters as a result of European politics. Serbia, whose territory has been doubled as a result of the two recent Balkan wars, has just sent to Rome a commission to negotiate a concordat with the Vatican. Personally, the Pope is most favorably disposed toward Serbia. Austria, however, which is the Vatican's strongest friend among the big European powers, has for the past century been trying to crush the little state that is always trying to create a big Slav empire on her southern border. Austria also enjoys the Vatican's position of protector of the Catholic church in the entire Balkan peninsula. She has lodged an emphatic protest with the Pope against this diminution of her power and the increase of that of Serbia which would result from a concordat with the Vatican. Pope Pius gives no indication of just how he is going to get out of the difficult position.

VILLA'S CAVALRY LEAVING OJINAGA FOR SOUTH AFTER VICTORY

Having captured Ojinaga and routed the whole northern army of General Huerta, General Pancho Villa, the most prominent figure in the Mexican rebellion, started his cavalry south for Chihuahua, or perhaps Torreón. This may be the beginning of the march into Mexico City, the stronghold of Huerta. Villa has been so consistently victorious for several months that he has gathered about him some 30,000 troops. If he is able to march to the gates of Mexico City with this force, he may overwhelm Huerta. Anyway, he has announced that since the north has been won over he would not delay his march on the capital.

SMELTING TRUST FACES ACTION OF U. S.

Evidence Justifies Federal Suit for Dissolution of $150,000,000 Combine

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—After months of quiet investigation the department of justice has concluded that it has sufficient grounds for a suit to dissolve, under the Sherman anti-trust act, the American Smelting and Refining Company, the so-called smelting trust.

It is not probable that suit will be filed immediately, but it is understood the preparations have gone so far that a bill in equity is being drawn by department attorneys.

It became known last night that E. W. Lehmann, former solicitor-general of the United States, had been retained by the so-called trust, and it is possible that he will confer with the attorney general before the department files suit.

Suit against the smelting "trust" is regarded here as of great importance, rivaled only by the Standard Oil and the Steel Corporation suits. The American Smelting and Refining Company, the American Smelters Securities Company, which it controls, have a combined authorized capital of nearly $150,000,000.

PROGRESSIVE PARTY MAKES BIG SHOWING; GOV. JOHNSON JUBILANT

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—Governor Hiram Johnson was jubilant today over the strength the Progressive party is showing throughout California in the 1914 registration race. Although the Republicans so far have been in the lead, the governor expressed confidence that his party will overcome this difference before the registration books close on May 27.

Up to date the Republicans have shown the greatest strength in Los Angeles and San Diego. In each place they lead the Progressives by about 1000 voters. In San Francisco the Republicans are about 400 ahead, and the Democrats about half a hundred. Seventeen centers of population recently showed the Republican registration to be 9705; Progressive, 7125, and Democrats 5426.

"The figures show," said Governor Johnson today, "a phenomenal registration of Progressives. Here is a new party, that in a few days registers almost 2000 more members than one of the old parties, and 2600 less than the other old party. The present registration represents only about one-twenty-fifth of the total vote that will be cast in November, when a full state ticket and a successor to United States Senator Perkins will be elected. I expect the Progressive candidates to poll more votes than the combined vote of all other candidates.

"When it is understood that registration does not mean voting strength of candidates in any respect, and that most of the people register from force of habit or tradition, the enrollment of the California Progressive party is nothing less than astounding. The Republicans and the Democrats have already shown how they fear the results by their present activities. On the other hand, the Progressive party has not done one-half the work that the other parties have done, and it has shown better results."

GOMPERS FORMER "BOOZE FIGHTER"

McDonald of Illinois Attacks Famous Leader in Mine Workers' Convention

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 30.—A class between President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor and Duncan McDonald of Illinois enlivened today's session of the United Mine Workers' convention. After the meeting was called to order McDonald took the floor and declared:

"I want to say to the delegates that Samuel Gompers is not entitled to a seat on this floor. He is nothing more nor less than a confirmed booze fighter."

Gompers leaped to his feet in a white rage and advanced towards McDonald, shouting: "McDonald is an unmitigated liar and knows it."

The other delegates kept the men apart.

"COMMERCIAL EXPEDITION" RETURNS FROM LONG TRIP

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The American "commercial expedition," composed of prominent manufacturers and financiers, members of the Southern Commercial Congress, were expected to arrive here today after the most extensive trip ever taken through South America in the interests of fostering trade relations between United States and South America. The expedition visited twenty-one of the largest cities of Brazil, Chile, Argentina, Republic, Colombia, Peru, Uruguay, Bolivia, Ecuador and several Central American countries.

TRIAL OF GIRL WHO KILLED SEDUCER NEARING AN END

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—Counsel's closing arguments are in progress today in the trial of Lea Alexander, who killed J. D. Van Baalen last October because after he had induced her to live with him as his wife under the promise of marriage, she found he was already married. There is no dispute as to the killing. Prosecutor Berry called it murder, while Defense Attorney O'Connor maintained that the girl's mind was unbalanced by her troubles and by her attempt previously to end her own life, and that she was not responsible for her act.

CHARLTON TRIAL PUT OFF

LAKE COMO, Italy, Jan. 30.—The trial of Porter Charlton, the American charged with wife murder, was postponed today until June, the judges' tribunal ordering a minute investigation of Mrs. Charlton's mental, moral and physical condition at the time of her death.

It is understood that the postponement is due to the court's belief in Charlton's declaration that his wife was sexually abnormal and possessed a dual nature. Sensational revelations are expected from the investigation. Public sentiment is with Charlton.

PORTLAND IN LEAD BANK RACE

Northwestern Banks Prefer That City Before Seattle or Spokane

FEDERAL SECRETARIES LISTEN TO ARGUMENTS

Seattle Prefers San Francisco to Any Other City on Coast But Itself

PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—Bankers and representative business men of Oregon and southwestern Washington appeared today before Federal Secretaries McAdoo and Houston to argue for a regional bank for Portland. The hearing here is expected to be concluded this afternoon, after which the committee will leave for San Francisco.

President Mills of the Portland clearing house advanced Portland's arguments for the bank, and concluded by offering figures secured by the bankers in response to letters sent to 960 banks in the northwestern states. Practically two-thirds of these banks replied, and 297 said most of their banking transactions are with Portland, 122 with Seattle, and 163 with Spokane.

To the question, "With what city do you carry the largest balance?" 208 named Portland, 111 Seattle, and 140 Spokane. More than half the banks replying depended on Portland for coin shipments. Asked to express preference for a reserve bank location, 304 were for Portland, 106 for Seattle and 155 for Spokane.

"Frisco Seattle's Second Choice
During the hearing at Seattle yesterday it was developed that the majority of Seattle's reserve money is held in New York, although the majority of business is with Minneapolis and Chicago. President Backus of the Seattle Clearing House, pressed by the committee, said San Francisco would be Seattle's second choice in the event Seattle is not chosen.

BOY IS DEAD OF HIS BURNS

Hot Water Pulled Over on Him
Two Weeks Ago Brought Death

Yesterday Raymond E. Padias, the little son of R. B. Padias, of Villa Park, was buried. The child died as the result of hot water burns received two weeks ago.

The accident occurred at W. H.
Brown's ranch at Villa Park. The boy was two and a half years old.
Some member of the family had a pot of boiling water on a table in the yard in which a chicken was dipped before being picked. The person picking the chicken stepped into the house for a minute, and while away a dog playing about the yard jumped upon the table and knocked over the pot of boiling water. The water fell upon the little boy, and his heavy clothing held the water so that the burns were a good deal worse than they would have been had the water merely struck the bare skin.

The child lingered for two weeks before death came.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK, THICK, GLOSSY

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is missary and troublesome.
Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

The Nightingale Club will hold its next meeting Friday evening, Feb. 6, with Mrs. A. L. Swarthout.

The W. C. T. U.

The meeting of the Tustin W.C.T.U. was attended by about twenty-five ladies Thursday afternoon, and the spacious living room of the Phinney home was filled to overflowing. In addition to these, there were several young ladies who took part in the program.

The meeting opened with singing a very effective song from the temperance hymnbook, "The Crisis." The roll call was responded to by those present with scripture verses. This was followed by reading of minutes and the treasurer's report, which were approved and also a communication from the corresponding secretary.

The subject of a donation to Ransom Home was discussed. As there was but little over $2 in the treasury, a motion was made to take up a collection, which was done at once, and something over $4 was received. It was then moved that enough be taken out of the treasury to make the sum $5 and that this be sent to Ransom Home as a donation for the work there. The motion was carried.

Mrs. Harry Lewis gave instructions as to subscriptions to "Mother's Magazine."

Mrs. Cranston made a motion that as the next meeting is to be a Frances Willard Memorial meeting, all the members be given the opportunity to contribute something to the subject without a special leader. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Lewis on Thursday, Feb. 12, and all the members are urged to attend and come prepared to make the meeting an interesting one.

Mrs. Phinney then gave a message from a former member, Mrs. C. A. Tuttle, who is now living at Heber, Imperial Valley, saying she had succeeded in organizing a union at that place. A motion was made and carried to send greetings to Mrs. Tuttle. A communication from the State Dry Federation was read by Mrs. Sarah Brown urging the ladies to organize a 1914 Dry club here at Tustin, but the matter was passed without action.

A report from the all-day prayer meeting held Jan. 19, showed a very good attendance in spite of the rainy day.

All business attended to, Mrs. C. E. Utt and Mrs. S. E. Tingley took charge of the meeting, which was a special mothers' meeting. Mrs. Tingley led the devotional exercises, reading the last chapter of Proverbs. Prayer was led by Mrs. P. H. Ebel. Mrs. Utt announced the subject: "Children in the Home," and called on Misses Alice and Inez Phinney for a song, and the sweet old song, "Home, Sweet Home," sung as a duet by these two young ladies, was most fitting and beautiful.

Miss Minnie C. Childs then gave a full and interesting history of the founding of "Mothers' Day," that is, the national observance on the second Sunday in May, on which to celebrate the birthday of the best mother in the world—"your mother." It was founded seven years ago by Miss Anna Jarvis in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Utt then called upon the ladies to give their different opinions about keeping the home together and at the same time keep in touch with the multitude of good things to go to outside the home. Expressions of many interesting opinions followed.

Miss Margaret Tingley, accompanied by Miss Childs, sang descriptive memories of childhood at home. The meeting adjourned, but the members were detained by Mrs. Phinney and the young ladies present—Misses Gertrude Utt, Mabel Logan, Margaret Tingley, Inez and Alice Phinney—served refreshments of delicious nut and fruit salad, chocolate and cake.

All members are urged to come to the next meeting and all who have not yet paid their dues for last year are urged if possible to bring them to this meeting, which will be held with Mrs. Harry Lewis.

Surprise Party

A party of friends of Mrs. Harry Kiser went over to Orange last Friday night to give her a surprise on the occasion of her birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Kiser were formerly residents of Tustin, but are now living at Orange, where Mr. Kiser is employed as assistant engineer at the Orange waterworks.

The party was given by Mr. and Mrs. John Kiser of Tustin and the invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Renlon Matthews, Misses Mabel Reihl, Gladys Stearns and Alice Matthews, and Messrs. Harry Reihl, Dudley Kiser and Harry Brookbank, all Tustin, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Langford and Mr. and Mrs. Williams of Orange.

Progressive whist was the attractive game for the evening. The first prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. John Kiser, and were a hair receiver and a handsome cack of cards, the consolations going to Miss Mabel Reihl and Mr. Langford.

The refreshments served were cocoa, sandwiches, cake and apples.

Missionary Society
The Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Advent Christian church held a very pleasant and profitable meeting at the parsonage last Tuesday afternoon. Besides transacting the business of the society a beautiful comfort was completed.

Household Economics

On account of the rain this week the breakfast which was announced to be given to the Household Economics Club on last Wednesday morning was postponed until Wednesday, Feb. 4, when Mrs. W. L. Leiby and Miss Minnie C. Childs will give the breakfast to the Economics Club at 11:30 o'clock in the forenoon, at the home of Miss Childs. All members of the club are cordially invited to attend.

OLD TUSTIN HOTEL IS TO BE WRECKED

The families who have rooms at the Tustin hotel have had notice to vacate by the seventh of February, as the building is to be torn down by a wrecking company. The ground on which it stands has been bought by the school trustees and the supposition is that this is to be the site for the new school building.

The hotel is a relic of the boom in Southern California in 1887. A company was formed composed of a number of prominent citizens of Tustin. This company was styled, "The Tustin Improvement Company," or a name similar. A tract of land was bought and upon one square of it the Tustin hotel was built. Other parts of this tract on the opposite side of E street were cut into lots and sold to different parties.

The hotel was built at a cost of $50,000. George Preble and Chris McNeil were the architects. It was complete in every particular and up-to-date. It was then sold to a Mr. Johnson, who came from Texas and brought colored help to serve as waiters, bell boys, etc. A ball was given at the opening and launching of the hotel.

Although Tustin had a street car line out from Santa Ana at that time, owned and run by M. J. Bundy, the patronage of the hotel was not enough to make it pay. Mr. Johnson ran it for a short time only, and the company finally took it back. It has changed hands several times, and from time to time has been used as a rooming house. The purpose for which it was built, the accommodation of tourists, has never been realized and no one seems to regret that it is to be torn down.

TUSTIN PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith have with them now little Hazel Smith, daughter of Leroy Smith of the San Joaquin ranch. Hazel lost her mother last July. Her death was caused by a bicycle accident in Santa Ana.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Artz and family will spend the week-end with Dr. C. V. Artz and family in Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. John Holt joined some friends in Santa Ana last Monday night, in spite of the rain, in a surprise party for Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hubbard of Santa Ana.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wright and family moved to Santa Ana this week. Mr. Fred Connell and family who have recently come to Tustin from Ipaia, Ill., will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Wright.

Mrs. Ann Schwartz has been away from home for the past month visiting friends in Los Angeles and Redondo Beach.

The building of Chas. Sauer's new home was commenced Thursday on the lot adjoining that of Mr. Berquist, his brother-in-law and business partner. The garage will be built first and then the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Eggert of Los Angeles came down last Friday to visit Mrs. Eggert's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Cook.

H. Romer has just returned from a trip to Chandler, Ariz.

Miss Gertrude Utt came out Thursday from Pasadena, where she is attending the Orton school, to spend the week-end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Luz of Redondo Beach have taken rooms at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Long.

C. M. Smith, who has been suffering severely from a hurt for several days, is very much improved. As the consequence of the heavy rain, Mr. Smith's automobile had sunk into the mud and in attempting to lift it he strained his back, and has been confined at home for the past week.

LIVELY TUSTIN SCHOOL NOTES

When the water from the rain came trickling down the walls and from the ceiling of the school house last Monday and Tuesday, everybody just got out of the way and not many complaints were heard because everybody knows that Tustin is soon to have a new school house. The bonds are sold and the trustees are in duty bound to go ahead without much delay and build the school house.

At the ball game which occurred on the Tustin school grounds last Friday afternoon between El Modena and Tustin school base ball nines, the score was eight to seven, in favor of Tustin. The grounds presented a lively scene for a while. Many friends of the El Modena boys came with them in automobiles and they had a great game.

The boys of the school themselves built a strong back-stop last week just back of the baseball diamond, out of material furnished by the board. This is for the protection of the other children on the grounds.

At the county examinations held recently the pupils did much better than at the first examination by the county for this year.

IMPROVEMENTS IN TUSTIN'S BAKERY

The Tustin Bakery is opening a new department. Quick lunches will be served in connection with the bakery goods. About Sept. 15, the large new concrete store building for the Tustin Bakery was finished with oven and all necessary modern appliances, and since that time the business has been conducted by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Eaton. The bread is fine and the cakes, pies and other goods have been just as good, and very generally satisfactory.

Lately there have been so many calls for lunches with fresh, warm drinks that it was thought advisable to put in a lunch counter and several tables, where coffee, tea, chocolate, and anything that can be prepared quickly for lunch, will be served. The lunch counter has already been well patronized, and it will no doubt fill a need in Tustin. Drummers and strangers in town feel the need of it as well as workers in the orange orchards and packing houses. The clean new bakery with a display of good things to eat is a very inviting place in which to lunch just now.

The Rain and the Mails

There were some disappointed faces to be seen around the post-office for about two days and a half this week and there was nothing doing inside the postoffice at all. No mail could come in on account of the damage done by the storm. Tustin should be very thankful to get off with no more inconvenience than delayed mail, as there are other places that were not so fortunate.

The sunshine for the past two days has quickly dried the roads and this same sunshine is greatly appreciated, as the rainfall has about reached the stage where people said it was enough.

PACKIE McFARLAND AND MIKE GIBBONS, CLEVEREST BOXERS IN WORLD, WHO ARE EXPECTED TO MEET SOON

PACKIE McFARLAND

The coming fight between Packie McFarland and Mike Gibbons, the cleverest boxers in the world in any division, will be one of the most interesting contests seen in the ring for many years—if it is not a fake. McFarland is undoubtedly the cleverest boxer in the ring. Few men of the past have equalled him. Jim Driscoll, the wonderful little featherweight of England, who spent several months in the United States knocking out lightweights, and young Griffo, the Australian, now a ruin of the bar-room, were his superiors. But it is doubtful if other clever men of the past, men like Jim Corbett, Jack McAuliffe, or Joe Gans, were clever as mere boxers.

Gibbons has been a revelation since he has shown himself out of St. Paul, his home. No middleweight in the ring now, and perhaps none since Tommy Ryan, has proved himself as good a boxer. Men like Ketchel and Watoot, and Langford—when he was in the middleweight class—might have whipped him, but they would have had to go some to do it.

McFarland has faked so much that it is quite impossible to grow very enthusiastic over the match.

Sporting Briefs of the Week

[By Hal Sheridan]

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Without violating any confidences or seeming to assume too much, it might be stated that the opinion prevails that the business of a fighter is to fight. But as the fighting must be done by the fighters and not by those having the opinions, there is a wide gulf between theory and practice insofar as a few young gentlemen now basking in the limelight as champions are concerned.

Willie Ritchie has had everything but croup and whooping cough since he was matched to fight Harlem Tommy Murphy. Finally the match was called off entirely. He has had just one 20-round fight since he took the title from Ad Wolgast. That was with Joe Rivers, and Ritchie won. He took the measure of Leach Cross in a ten-round bout in New York, but for the most part Willie has been conspicuous, so far as the ring was concerned, by his absence. Some time ago something was said about the existing crop of "cheese champions." Every day the odor gets worse. Somebody will have to invent a new kind of smelly cheese so that a creditable comparison can be drawn. Johnny Kilbane has stalled around so long that people have forgotten who he is. Apparently as careful about his selection of matches as an old lady picking out eggs under suspicion.

Gunboat Smith, who disposed of Arthur Pelky recently, has been doing considerable fighting, but who ever thought of Smith as a champion, outside of Smith or his manager, without more or less of a giggle?

Poor old Tommy Murphy has been chasing the title of lightweight champion for years. Ritchie could probably whip him, but what with sprained ankles and other little inconveniences he is not taking any.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest St. Jacobs Oil

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 25 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin. Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

ONE KIND OF INTERLOCKING DIRECTORS

A wide range of views is entertained in the business community as to the extent to which the so-called "interlocking directorates" should be forbidden. There is one species of business interlocking, however, in the smaller centers, to which few people would object, and which the new law should deal with very carefully if at all.

In the country town and small city, something like this frequently happens: The community needs a new bank, or one already in existence needs co-operation. A local manufacturer or other business man consents to take office in that bank, not from expectation of salary, and often with no hope of making money in bank stock. The time he gives to the bank's business is either given free or is ill paid. The bank could hardly live without the knowledge of local conditions and business judgment possessed by directors of this type, whose service is given almost entirely out of community spirit.

On the other side of the deal, the home bank has one or more men who devote their whole time to its work. They acquire the peculiar knowledge of human nature and acute forecast of financial conditions that goes with bank training. They are asked to serve as directors in local commercial enterprises. Their banking experience helps on such enterprises, and the returns are usually small for the time and thought given.

The new law soon to be passed by congress should be framed to meet the ills of "big business," and should deal cautiously with the more unselfish and public spirited exchange of experience so often seen in the smaller places. The two kinds of things may seem technically alike, but in effects they are radically different.

The so-called interlocking between great corporations is easily capable of abuses, and is condemned by public sentiment. In the life of the country town and small city there is none too much exchange of these services.

BORROWING ON LIFE INSURANCE

Half a million dollars of life insurance protection has been taken away from the wives and children of the country by the habit of borrowing on life insurance policies. These figures are the result of a recent investigation by the Life Insurance Presidents' Association.

Of course the eloquence of the life insurance agent accounts for much. It is easy to save money while his facile conversation runs on. Only a cigar or two less a day, and you have paid for a thousand or two insurance, according to age. Of course if you find you want the money, he plausibly adds, all you have to do is to borrow on your policy, which establishes your credit.

Under persistent solicitation, appealing to the feeling of moral obligation, many policies are taken out by men with no self-control in money matters. They never judge of an expenditure by its relation to their total income. If the money is in their pocket, it is right to spend it. The fact that a premium payment is due next month is ignored.

When a man borrows on his policy, he expects to pay it back soon. This investigation by the insurance presidents showed that few of these loans are ever repaid.

The modern married woman is ill fitted to cope with the world. The time that might have provided her with a bread winning equipment, has gone to service to husband and children. It is a pretty mean-hearted man who does not do everything possible to leave some degree of comfort behind him, and to leave it intact, unmortgaged either by personal extravagance or business ambition.

THE CITRUS FRUIT INDUSTRY

Department of Service to Citrus Fruit Growers, Conducted Especially for the Register.

Copyrighted by Reginald Briggsmead.

NOTES OF INTEREST TO CITRUS FRUIT GROWERS

West India Citrus Fruits and Canada in 1912 meeting with a good demand at Kobe at $50 per ton.

The Canadian government has just signed a contract with the Royal Steam Packet Company calling for a better and more frequent list of sailings between St. Johns and Halifax, and Bermuda, St. Kitts, Antigua, Barbados, Granada, Trinidad, and other of the West Indian islands. The new contract not only carries with it a small subsidy of nearly $350,000 annually, but reliable reports are to the effect that all boats are to carry refrigerator chambers.

This is of interest to the California citrus fruit grower for two reasons: 1. It offers facilities to handle perishable products, amongst which are citrus fruits, and to land them in good shape on the Canadian markets—facilities which have not hitherto existed. 2. It shows the great expansion of refrigeration on steamships, which augurs well for similar facilities through the Panama canal.

Chili Saltpetre
The following report of the production of nitrate of soda in Chili for the first ten months of 1912 and 1913 respectively is of interest to California citrus fruit growers, few of whom do not use nitrate of soda on their orchards, either in the form of mixed fertilizer or as a simple.
In 1912, total production, 23,278 tons, valued at $46,200 per ton.
In 1913, total production, 27,000 tons, valued at $37,000 per ton.
The above prices are at point of shipment.

Fertilizer in Japan
During 1912 Japan used $104,000,000 worth of fertilizer, as follows:
Artificial fertilizer $36,000,000
Night soil 32,300,000
From straws 31,000,000
From weeds 7,957,000
Imports amounted to over $26,000,000. Of the powdered fish produced in Alaska, Japan purchases practically the entire output, this fertilizer

Shippers of pineapples, vegetables and citrus fruits in Cuba are now calling for the free entry of crates, or box shooks, for use in the export business.

Cuba exports over one and a half million crates of the above products annually to the United States, but the trade is reported as being unprofitable. Hence the call for some relief in the cost of shooks.

Little Talks On Babylogy

BY ANNA STEESE RICHARDSON

Director of the Better Babies Bureau of the Woman's Home Companion

BABY'S SOURCE OF HEALTH AND STRENGTH—FOOD

(Copyright, 1913, by the Woman's Home Companion.)

The last article on this fascinating subject of Babylogy defined the science of baby-study, and told how it had sprung from the Better Babies Contests.

Perhaps the most amazing feature of my visits to these contests, where I watched doctors and mothers examining the babies, was the large number of women who did not know their own babies. Oh, yes, they knew Baby's name, the color of his hair and his eyes, the exact point where his cheek or his chin broke into a delightful dimple, the side of his family from which babykins got his many good points and his few bad ones, the day when he had first sat up or toddled across the floor, these and many other things the mothers knew. But still they did not know what was going on inside of baby, in the digestive apparatus on which so much of his health and happiness depend.

Of course if Baby could talk, Mother would know exactly how he feels, because he could explain where the ache is located. But when one's means of communication is limited to wriggling, and rolling up his eyes, and emitting disturbed yaps, Mother must look for signs or symptoms to take the place of worded complaints.

And there are so many ways in which the flesh, the skin, the eyes, the very actions of a baby indicate that his digestion is not in good working order. And when the digestion is not working, Mother must go directly to the Cause—Baby's food. We who are old and strong and seasoned know what ills follow on the trail of indigestion. How we should sympathize with a tender baby whose sufferings we can alleviate by just righting the system of feeding!

If the food does not agree with are starving that baby." The mother was shocked and hurt. "I nurse her every three hours," she protested.

"No doubt," answered the doctors, "but your milk is not nourishing her. Perhaps you are not strong enough. Perhaps your baby should have both the breast and modified milk. We will find out."

They did. That mother learned that her baby was drifting toward the dangerous rock of anemia. Her lesson in Babylogy was how to alternate the breast milk with a bottle feeding of modified milk.

A third baby was what you would call a "fat boy." He was covered with the most "pat-able" creases, and his complexion was blooming, but he had such a scowl on his round face and he shied from everything and every body away from him as if the entire world were distasteful. Mother said he had never been a really good natured baby, and she didn't know why. But the doctors found out. The plump stomach of which his mother was so proud was not an indication of health but of undigested, unassimilated food, overfeeding.

At sixteen months, a baby's head, chest and abdomen should measure just the same 18½ inches. This poor little liddle had an eighteen inch head, a seventeen inch chest and an abdomen measuring 19½ inches. And just by exploring with his finger, the doctor found an ugly little mass of undigested food down in one corner of that bulging abdomen. Of course, Baby wanted to shove people away. So do you, Grown-up, when you have a sick headache or a bilious attack.

Here was a baby being overfed with milk just milk, but milk not properly prepared.

And there you have it, rash, malnutrition and downright indigestion, all because three mothers did not know what was going on inside of Baby's tummy. We think so long as Baby has milk and nothing else, he is safe. Milk, even mother's milk, needs watching, and Babylogy tells you how to do it.

The feeding of the baby begins before it is born. The condition of the newborn baby's stomach is largely determined by the condition of the mother's stomach before he comes into the world. That is why the expectant mother should guard her diet and her digestion so carefully during the precious months before her baby comes.

Any pronounced digestive trouble is communicated to the baby directly, and it comes into the world ill-equipped for its first month's struggle for existence. The vast majority of babies who die during their first year, die of inanition, mal-assimilation of food, indigestion and summer-complaint. The mother can start her baby right by keeping her own digestion in the best of condition. Some mothers, in the spirit of self-sacrifice, serve at table the choicest food to their growing children, their hard-working husbands and sons. No expectant mother should deny herself the nourishment required to sustain her own strength and that of the little child so soon to be ushered into the world.

The natural, the best food for the new born babe is mother's milk. And the Creator has given the average woman strength to nourish her child in this natural way. Sometimes, directly after the baby's birth, the mother is very weak, then well-meaning but interfering relatives and advisers urge her to wean the baby at once, when with a little patience, the use of milk would be ample. Unless the mother is anemic or suffering from constitutional or acute disease, the baby will thrive best on mother's milk. And the ability to nurse the baby until a safe time for weaning can be encouraged by careful attention to the mother's diet.

A well balanced diet, made up from a variety of foods which the mother craves, will nourish both mother and child.

Food that is easily digested, like chicken, beef and lamb, is better than pork and veal. Fish may occasionally be substituted for meat, and eggs are desirable if they do not create a bilious condition. Green vegetables and fresh or stewed fruits the mother should have in quantity. On the other hand, she should avoid excesses in diet, whether this be tea, coffee, sweets or pastries. Light desserts do no harm, but rich pies and puddings that keep the mother awake at night will have precisely the same effect on the baby.

No young mother should listen to what doctors call "old women's tales," bad advice about extremes in diet. At one of the contests, I heard a young mother say that she was drinking malt to make her milk more nourishing for the baby. And how she did hate that malt. It nauseated her every time she drank it.

When the doctors told her that anything which nauseated her would affect the baby in the same way, she was actually relieved. Yet she had been forcing herself to drink the malt, because an elderly neighbor had told her what wonders it had done for other women. Doctors, not neighbors, should be consulted in these problems of Babylogy.

Another woman told me that she didn't see why her baby could not retain her milk. I curdled on his stomach. And she assured me quite solemnly that she never ate anything acid. She did love pickles and salads and lemonade, but her nurse had told her she must not eat sour things while she nursed the baby. I heard the sensible doctor in charge of that contest tell her to go right along home and make herself a good fresh salad and eat it up to the last leaf of lettuce.

Her digestion craved because her system was denied it. Acid to excess is dangerous, yes, but a balanced diet, never.

Another condition of the mother which will affect the baby's digestion is nervousness. A baby should not be nursed when the mother is angry or is suffering from shock of any sort. The mother who is very tired from her household duties should sit down and relax before nursing the baby. If she sips a glass of milk or eats a cracker or a biscuit before nursing the baby, she will help his digestion.

So much for the general problem of diet for nursing babies and then the care of the bottle-fed baby, subjects which students of Babylogy must study very carefully.

49 DROWN AS STEAMSHIP MONROE SINKS

ficers of the Dominion Line place the lost at forty-seven and the saved at eighty-six in the Monroe disaster. Of the saved, thirty-one were passengers and fifty-five were of the crew. Of the lost, twenty-five were passengers and twenty-four of the crew. The first wireless for aid was received at 2 o'clock this morning from both ships. The cutter Onondaga replied: "Where are you? We will come." A long delay elapsed without reply when the Nantucket gave the position, saying the Monroe had sunk. The fog then interfered with the wireless.

FIRST LIFE LOST SINCE COMPANY WAS FOUNDED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—"It is the first time since the company was founded in 1867 that we have lost a passenger," said President H. B. Walker of the Old Dominion steamship line, commenting on the sinking of the Monroe. He declared the Monroe's life-saving efficiency was 100 per cent.

A JAPANESE DINNER

Santa Anans, Soon to Tour Orient, Honor Guests at Charming Function

Invited to a 5:30 o'clock dinner last evening at the John Cubbon home on French street at which Mrs. W. L. Bullard and Miss Margaret Orr were hostesses, Mrs. Gertrude Finley, Miss Lida Crookshank and Miss Celia Cotter were overwhelmingly surprised on walking into the Cubbon parlors to be confronted with a bevy of intimate friends dressed in fetching Japanese costumes, the hostesses being likewise attired. The merry surprise was made still more interesting when the familiar Oriental garments were provided for the trio with absolutely lavish profusion of assistance in the donning of them.

The Japanese motif prevailed throughout the house and table decorations, bamboo, papyrus, Japanese lanterns and ropes of dainty artificial wisteria and chrysanthemums, blending with the Japanese costumes, creating an Oriental atmosphere suggestive of the real Orient so soon to be visited by the three ladies who were the guests of honor last evening. The appetizing chicken dinner was served on a table appointed with a Japanese runner, Japanese napery, and dishes of Japanese design in dainty blue. The fruit cocktail was served in blue cups, and the teapots at either end of the table where the hostesses, Mrs. Bullard and Miss Orr, presided over the pouring of the pure Japanese tea blend, were of quaint Nippon pattern. Rice was served in each course. Place cards were shaped as Japanese lanterns, and the names of the guests were inscribed on the cards in perpendicular fashion. In the center of the table was a big jardiniere of cherry blossoms carrying the imagination to the Flowery Kingdom itself. Tall crystal candles softly shaded, and the Japanese lanterns suspended in every nook and corner, furnished the only illumination. The salted almonds were in cunning Japanese cups that were guest favors. Music from the excellent Victrola belonging to Mr. Cubbon was furnished by that gentleman during the progress of the interesting dinner. Those at the table were Mrs. Finley, Miss Lida Crookshank, Miss Celia Cotter, the complimentary guests, Mrs. Bullard and Miss Orr, the hostesses, Mesdames A. J. Crookshank, G. S. Smith, S. W. Wallace, Charles Heil, Warren Brakeman, Miss Margaret Wakeham and Miss Katherine Cubbon served.

The company spent the remaining hours in the parlors where the putting together of dissected Japanese postal cards proved a task requiring real intellectuality, not to mention patience, while a quiz on the geography, history and other aspects of Japan revealed to the guests how much they had yet to learn about the Sunrise Kingdom. All of those who puzzled last night over Japan's capital and even the meaning of the alluring name of the country, and various other apparently commonplace facts, are expecting to be fully enlightened as to all obscure points on the return of the tourists from the Orient.

Mell Smith, the Watchmaker, has moved to 304 Main street.

SECOND ARTICLE ON BABYLOGY TODAY

The second article of the Register's series on Babylogy appears in today's paper. That these articles are being widely read and are greatly appreciated is amply attested by the voluntary expressions to that effect that have been published in this column. Here is another such expression:

Orange, Cal., Jan. 24.

Editor Register:
We very much appreciate the splendid article on Babylogy published in last night's paper, and hope the good articles will continue. This article has been discussed among the mothers of Orange, and we want you to know of our appreciation.
Yours truly,
CLARA M. JONES.

Was Completely Surprised

In honor of the birthday of Mrs. E. A. Bell a number of intimate friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bell walked into the Bell home most unceremoniously last evening, surprising the good lady of the house. It is suspected that Mr. Bell was in the secret, but he could keep a secret well, as Mrs. Bell was entirely astonished at the unannounced visit. The evening proved to be a merry one, games and music, and the serving of appetizing refreshments taken by the surprising party, making up a pleasing program of pleasure.

Those present besides Mr. and Mrs. Bell were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hill, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Syester, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Knight.

Easterner Sees Santa Ana

Miss Bessie Manor of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Manor of Hebron, Illinois, have returned to Miss Manor's home in the city, after a few days' visit with their cousin, Mrs. W. C. Dunlap, of 722 Cypress avenue. Mr. Manor has been here a little over a week from the east, this being his first visit to California. He said it was like coming into a new country from winter into summer.

The rains prevented him from seeing much of Santa Ana, but he was around enough to cause him to wonder why there was not more "paper" money in circulation in this section.

Those who were present were the president, Mrs. Belle Rogers, County Secretary Mrs. Lea Warren, County Treasurer Mrs. J. E. Kellogg, Vice President Mrs. Rawlings of Tustin; the program committee, Mrs. E. B. Norman, and Mrs. Agnes Ralph of Orange.

CITY P.-T. FEDERATION

Important Topics Talked of at Yesterday's Meeting at Intermediate School

The City Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations met yesterday afternoon at the Intermediate school building auditorium at 3 o'clock. There was a large attendance of parents and teachers of the city. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. F. H. McElree, Mrs. Geo. Post and Mrs. Ludwig favored the gathering with two piano duets. Prof. Cranston spoke of a few things he wanted to bring before the Federation. First, in regard to school gardening. As it is difficult to secure vacant lots near the school building, he would recommend home gardening, each pupil to have a plot where they can raise flowers or vegetables. He said each school could have an exhibit near the close of the school. He spoke of the night school for the Spanish speaking people which was started Wednesday night in the commercial building. There were present that night thirty-six pupils anxious to learn the English language and the common branches taught in our schools. They will pay one dollar a month towards this night school but that will not be sufficient to pay the cost of the school and any one who is interested in this project can help to support this night school. It is up to Santa Ana to not let this fail for lack of funds.

Mr. Cranston announced that there would be an exhibit at the Domestic Science building this week which the public is invited to visit and see the work that has been accomplished.

R. J. Hamilton, secretary of the County Y. M. C. A. made a request that this body appoint a committee to form a society to hold contests for better babies. In this way mothers could be taught to care for their babies more intelligently. He also spoke of the splendid articles that are being published in the Register on Babylogy and he thought they would be a great help to those who would read them. The Federation moved that such a committee be appointed, and the president announced that she would appoint this committee later. Mrs. A. J. Lawton presented the matter of a series of lectures to be given by Mr. Stephanie Schutze before the Parent-Teacher Association. He is highly recommended as having a fine series of lectures suitable for these meetings. It may be arranged later to have him come to Santa Ana for this purpose.

Mrs. A. L. Hamilton of Pasadena gave an excellent address to the Federation. She first spoke of a department for these organizations have for the purpose of finding homes for children up to 14 years. She said there were many homeless children and many childless homes and all children could in some way be provided for. "We must live for each other, not for ourselves," she said. "Let us have a mission to perform every day. We teach our children obedience, reverence, unselfishness, until they are 4 years old the teachers will not have that part of the child's education to look after. The association can have a mothers' conference of talks on Sex Hygiene. These are found to be very useful and do much good."

It was suggested for the different associations to consider the question of dress, and that mothers should be careful as to the ridiculous style of dress many girls wear and should discourage the extreme fashion that prevails in this day and age. She said something should be done to obliterate the obscene post cards and literature that is circulated over this beautiful land of ours. Mrs. Hamilton also spoke on moving pictures, saying they could be made a great educational feature if only the right and proper kind of pictures could be shown. They should be strictly censored.

A vote of thanks was given Mrs. Hamilton for her splendid talk. Miss Clara Wilson gave a piano solo. The next meeting, to be held in April, will be for the election of officers. The following nominating committee was appointed: Mrs. J. N. Anderson, Mrs. Shepherd, Mrs. Deswick. Some discussion on forming a music study class on Mexico was held and it was decided to meet at the home of the president, Mrs. McElree, on the first Friday evening of February to organize this class. Anyone desiring to learn more of the Mexican race, conditions and customs, can join this class.

DR. WEBBER DENIES REPORT ABOUT THE EXPERIMENT STATION

Dr. H. J. Webber, director of the experiment station, states that the report sent out from Los Angeles to the effect that the choice for the citrus station had narrowed down to San Fernando, Covina and Corona is entirely unauthorized.

Dr. Webber said today: "No decision had been reached regarding the location of the station and there are certainly more than three eligible sites being considered. There is no authority whatever for such a report."

Riverside is still in the running and there is no occasion to be worried over extravagant claims made by other localities.

MISSOURI NOW HAS 2-CENT FARE LAW—STATE WILL SUE

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 30.—Federal Judge McPherson today dismissed the injunction restraining Missouri from putting into effect its two-cent fare law and thus preventing Attorney General Baker from suing for $24,000,000 over-charges he alleges the railroads made while the law was in litigation. It is understood that Attorney General Baker will begin suits immediately in the state courts.

COUNTY CLERK

DUG UP $284

Parts With Money Received as Naturalization Fees in Seven Years

Point of Law Raised by Finley
in Habeas Corpus Proceedings

County Clerk W. B. Williams wrote out a check for $284 and turned it over to County Treasurer J. C. Joplin. The United States supreme court has decided that the law that allows the county clerk half of the fees in naturalization matters is illegal. The law is plain enough. It says that for each declaration of intention to become a citizen, the county clerk shall receive a fee of $1 and for final papers $4, and that half of the fee shall be sent to Uncle Sam and half shall go to the county clerk. The law was put to a test in an action brought by the authorities against the county clerk of San Francisco, and was carried to the highest court in the country, with the result that the decision is that the county clerk's half goes to the county and not to the clerk. The law allowing superior courts to have jurisdiction of naturalization went into effect seven years ago. In the seven years Williams collected $284. After he received notice of the decision of the federal court, he went over his books, found out how much was due the state, and wrote out a check for the amount, $284.

Habeas Corpus Matter
Attorney Steele Finley is making an effort to get Mike Romero out of jail. Romero is in jail because he failed to pay a fine of $200 on a misdemeanor charge. Since he must serve one day for every $1 of the fine, he seems likely to be in jail altogether 200 days, unless Finley makes good his contention in habeas corpus proceedings begun today. The matter will be heard by Judge West tomorrow morning. Finley contends that under the law Romero could have been sentenced to jail for only ninety days, and that a fine sentence that compels him to be in jail longer than ninety days is illegal. Romero has been in jail ninety days.

IN THE JUSTICE'S COURT

GAMBLERS ARE FINED IN JUSTICE'S COURT

Jury Found Them Guilty, and Sentence Was Pronounced
at Once

Yesterday afternoon a jury that tried Rufino Lopez and Jesus Benites on a charge of gambling found the defendants guilty, and recommended them to the mercy of the court. Justice Cox fined each of the Mexicans $25, and suspended ninety days over them. One fine was paid and the other will be paid today or tomorrow. The men were arrested at Anaheim by Under Sheriff Law, Deputy Dean and others.

Battery Charge
Elmer Hungerford, a former line-man for the Edison company, was arrested at noon today by Constable Jackson on a warrant for battery. It seems that Hungerford was fired from the Edison employ last Tuesday. Whether or not he imagined that Barry McPhee, another line-man, had anything to do with it is not known, but yesterday morning as McPhee walked into the yard with one hand in his pocket and a dinner pail in the other, Hungerford ran at him and before McPhee knew he was being attacked, struck McPhee in the face and knocked him down.

When Jackson arrested Hungerford he found a revolver on the man. Hungerford told Jackson there was one other person he wanted to "get." Justice Cox fixed Hungerford's bail at $200 and set his trial for Feb. 8.

Coming Monday
Deputy District Attorney Koepsel has received a telephone message from the office of the State Fish and Game Commission in Los Angeles stating that Commissioner Connell, who is charged with killing more than the limit of ducks, will be here at 2:30 o'clock next Monday afternoon to plead to the charge. The case is in Justice Cox's court.

Rock and Fulton in "The Candy Shop," Grand Opera House, Feb. 3

AMUSEMENTS

"The Candy Shop"
Theatergoers of this city are promised a box of choice bon-bons for the price of a package of fudge when "The Candy Shop" comes to the Grand Opera House next Tuesday night. This big fun, fashion and song show has been termed a musical celebration by the patrons of the new Gaiety Theatre in San Francisco where it played to the capacity of the house for eight straight weeks and afterwards duplicated its "Northland" success at the new Morosco Theatre in Los Angeles. The Anderson Gaiety Company of San Francisco is the producer of and sponsor for "The Candy Shop" and those who have seen the show in either of the above named cities, describe it as an intense musical comedy delight from the first rise of the curtain to the finale. Organized and produced originally in New York City last summer, the management was successful in getting together an aggregation of all-star principals, a supporting bevy of statuesque and beautiful show girl choristers and a bunch of attractive singing and dancing "ponies" and chorus boys, all of whom contribute to the production of a metropolitan atmosphere that unconsciously carries the average auditor back across the continent to the white lights of Bohemian Broadway. The show this season has been visited by coast cities have not been visited by anywhere near the sensational success scored by "The Candy Shop" and the only sane and sensible solution to this is that the Gaiety offering possesses a merit distinctly superior to its competitors. To begin with the play is an unusually well written vehicle, is staged with a lavish display and splendor, and the speaking parts are acted by a coterie of entertaining principals who have shone resplendently in recognized successes of former seasons. These include William Rock and Maude Fulton, America's premier travesty artists; Al Shean, Will Philbrick, Gene Lunska and several others of scarcely less ability and reputation. The advance demand for seat reservations to "The Candy Shop" show is already extraordinarily great and a strongly prophetic of the local engagement being attended with early turn away conditions.

can stage. In staging the play, Mr. Fiske called into service seven of the most prominent scenic artists in America, each of whom designed and executed a setting, and he personally supervised the production to the smallest detail.

Owing to the length of the performance the curtain rises promptly at 8 o'clock in the evenings and at 2 o'clock at the Wednesday and Saturday matinees. Mail orders for seats from neighboring towns will receive particular attention at the Mason box office and will be filled promptly. The Los Angeles engagement of "Kismet" will terminate on Saturday, February 14, and the company will immediately return to the eastern cities, playing no other engagements in Southern California.

CHILDREN HATE OIL CALOMEL AND PILLS

"California Syrup of Figs"
Best for Tender Stomach,
Liver, Bowels

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them. With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them. If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleaning, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grownups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Advertisement.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE CITRUS MARKET

Chance of Frost Damage is Remote—Rain Stops Shipments

The Fruit World, in its review of the citrus situation, says:

"Rain and cloudy weather have checked orange picking this week. The packing houses are busy packing fruit that was picked before the rain, as it has been impossible to enter groves until the ground again becomes firm."

"The chances of frost damage this season are remote. Climatic conditions have been such that the frost has been routed. The ground and the atmosphere are full of moisture, the trees are healthy and the oranges are well matured and in fine shape to withstand even severe cold. Smudging will be necessary only where there are young trees."

"Although the orange market is not what the growers and shippers would like to see, comparisons with conditions in January as a rule will show that the market is not as some reports would have us believe. January and February never do hold forth any great inducements as regard prices, because of unsettled weather conditions in eastern markets; and, if growers and shippers stop to reason out market conditions so as to prevent any great glut of fruit on any one market, conditions will be materially benefited."

"All kinds of prices and proposals are being made. We hear of small interior markets receiving carloads of oranges at the consignment basis at prices that are ridiculously low, and it is doubtful as to the advisability of shipping fruit this way, with the chances of the grower getting anything, being as poor as they are."

"Receivers are making no attempt to conceal their displeasure over what they term the 'foolishness' of shippers and growers in sending navel oranges to the front in seaboard markets and to relegate California navels to the background."

"F. O. B. prices at this time average from $1.40 to $1.65, according to sizes and districts."

"The California lemon market is in good shape and compares favorably with most January markets, with the possible exception of last January, when prices were extremely high and ranged around $6 F. O. B."

"There is a good demand for California lemons in all markets, and in spite of the heavy supply of foreign lemons, there being 127,000 boxes on hand and available for sale within thirty days, according to latest figures, as compared with 57,000 boxes a year ago, and 23,000 boxes two years ago same date. Foreign lemons have averaged from $2 to $2.10 in the eastern markets at the sales held this past week."

"Prices on California lemons range from $2.75 to $3 F. O. B. for best stock."

Stop worrying about the work. There's an easy, pleasant way to do your work, and it's as quick as it is easy. Use Fels-Naptha Soap. It works best in cool or lukewarm water, saving the trouble of keeping up a hot fire to heat your water. It dissolves grease and takes out all kinds of stains.

Colonel Gorgas Nominated for Surgeon in Chief

President Wilson has nominated Colonel William C. Gorgas, chief sanitary officer of the Panama Canal, to be surgeon in chief of the army, and thus reward has come to the man who did as much as Colonel Goethals to make the canal possible.

His nomination is now before the senate, and there is little doubt that it will be confirmed after it has gone through the regular course in that body. The colonel is now in South Africa for the British government. He was sent there to improve sanitary conditions in the diamond district, and was given leave of absence by the war department for that purpose. Without the work of Colonel Gorgas on the canal unsanitary conditions would have killed their thousands long before the work had been brought to its present state. But he used radical measures, and now the canal zone, though in the tropics, is one of the healthiest spots on the face of the earth.

HOW TO "BEAT" THE OSLER THEORY

Eat Red Pepper; Drink Gallon of Water a Day; Don't Stuff; Breathe Deeply

CLEVELAND, Jan. 30.—"Overeating puts more people in the graveyard than over-drinking." This is the basis of the longevity rules of Dr. W. P. Horton, prominent Cleveland physician, who is sixty years old but looks forty. He says he "feels thirty," and on the old theory that "woman, a poor thing, is as old as she looks, but a man's just as young as he feels," he says he is only thirty. Dr. Horton is "husky," clear-eyed, and the glow of health is reflected in his cheeks.

How to Beat Osler Theory
Here's Dr. Horton's health recipe: Eat red pepper.
Eschew black pepper, tea and coffee.

Do not "stuff."
Drink a gallon of water every day. Breathe deeply.
Keep out of doors as much as possible.

"I have been making a study of folks for forty years," said Dr. Horton today. "The trouble with most of them is that they 'exist' too fast. They don't live. In these days we don't really eat. We swallow pre-digested foods. We drink tea, coffee and other stimulants in ever increasing quantities. We exist in overheated, steam-heated atmospheres. We spend too much time in stuffy, unventilated street cars, and not enough in the open air. Our children skate in indoor rinks; our men play pool and poker in smoke filled rooms; our women play bridge in close drawing rooms. If there was more walking to school by children; walking at least part of the way to office by men, and walking to market by the women, we would all be better off. This artificiality is telling on us. Instead of controlling our muscles and nerves, our muscles and nerves control us."

"Such stimulants as coffee and tea contain ingredients, such as tannin, which close the glands which contain the fluids of life. These ingredients are contained in white and black pepper as well as in tea and coffee. Red pepper, however, has the opposite effect. It opens the glands and keeps the life fluid racing within us. In addition, it creates a thirst for water, which, by the way, is about as near the 'waters of youth' or the 'elixir of life' as has been found. It is almost impossible for anyone to drink too much water. The body cannot be flushed too often. Drink more water and eat less food, even of the right kind, and you'll see how much better off you are both physically and mentally."

SALTS IF KIDNEYS OR BLADDER BOTHER

Harmless to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and Bladder weakness results from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.—Advertisement.

KRAEMER'S BROTHER IS SAFE IN KANSAS

Fullerton Tribune: Sam Kraemer expresses anxiety relative to the safety of his brother Jonathan, who owns a large cattle ranch in Durango. He said he had not heard from him for eight months, and the last letter appeared to have been apprehensive lest his brother had met with foul play. He was upon the point of telegraphing the state department at Washington when a letter reached him this week from his brother, who had come out from Mexico and was staying temporarily in Lawrence, Kansas. Mr. Kraemer visited his brother in Durango three years ago, and at that time urged him to leave the country. During the past two or three years bandits have driven off thousands of head of cattle and sheep from the ranch, and the life of the owner was at times threatened. While in the city of Durango a year ago Jonathan found himself in the midst of a hair-raising battle in the streets between Mexican factions. He made his escape in safety and returned to his ranch, only to be called upon some days later for another bunch of cattle. In the fight many were killed and their bodies lay promiscuously on the streets. It is not known whether Mr. Kraemer will come to California to visit relatives before returning to Durango. His losses on account of the revolution will aggregate a very large amount.

McGregory, representing Guggenheim, as attorney.

PLAYGROUND MOVEMENT MADE HUGE ADVANCE IN 1913

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The Playground and Recreation Association of America has just completed its annual stock-taking. Blanks to be filled out to give an adequate idea of recreation activities were sent to every community of 5000 or over in the United States and Canada and to every city under 5000 which had indicated to the association that some effort towards public recreation had been made. Ten hundred and fifty cities responded and the result is a comprehensive survey of recreation in America today.

Six hundred and forty-two cities report themselves in various stages of activity. Of these, 342 have regular paid play leaders in their playgrounds and recreation centers, 22 have volunteer leaders and 59 no play leaders. One hundred and forty-nine school playgrounds, often supervised by public school teachers at recess or after school, are reported. Seventy cities that never before had playgrounds have taken initial steps, through appointing a recreation secretary, forming an association or a commission, securing land on bond issues or requesting appropriations. In addition, thirty-one other cities are working to establish play centers.

The Playground and Recreation Association of America stands for play leadership in playground and recreation centers. Therefore the 342 cities reporting regular paid leadership are of primary interest in the association Year Book. Many communities report playgrounds one year and none the next. "Almost invariably the explanation is 'No play leadership.'" So the work rises and falls with changing fortune, until it is at last established on the right basis with competent leadership. Never has a city so started on its recreation career fallen back. The association believes in municipal support of recreation. Therefore the 342 cities out of the total expenditure reported $5,700,233.81 its chief pride is in the 111 cities where support was entirely municipal. In 115 cities support was both municipal and private, in 114 private and in 6 of the 2324 cities, not given.

These 342 cities report 6218 workers and 2402 centers; 213 of the 342 report an average daily attendance of 454,348 during July and August. One hundred and fifty-two cities maintained 629 evening school centers. The total average attendance in 101 cities was 62,224. The leaders in the recreation movement are particularly pleased that seventy-one cities report recreation work throughout the year with 763 workers employed throughout the year. The activities include not only games and athletics but singing, skating, dramatics, folk dancing, story-telling, pageants, swimming, wading—"everything that will bring joy and happy self-expression."

A Potpourri of News and Views

From the Los Angeles Financial News

Financial Conditions

Before the Los Angeles Realty Board Thursday noon Stoddard Jess, vice-president of the First National Bank, delivered an address in which he gave his views regarding the business depression the past year throughout the country. As to the year 1914 Mr. Jess was optimistic. His subject was "Financial Conditions as they Exist." The meeting passed a resolution for the appointment of a committee of six to confer with local bankers regarding the establishment of a regional bank in Los Angeles. Other speakers besides Mr. Jess were Judge Albert M. Stephens and M. J. Monette, of the Citizens Trust and Savings Bank. Mr. Monette's topic was "The Relation of the Borrower and the Lender." He handled his subject in a splendid way, making a special plea for fairness toward the banks; he also urged co-operation of all interests with the banks, declaring that the strength of the banks is the strength of the community. Mr. Jess in his address spoke in part as follows:

"The year 1912 will go down in history as one in which many social and political changes have taken place, not only in our own country, but throughout the world. Among the most important problems that have presented themselves has been the shortage in money, the amount of available cash being insufficient to meet the demands. Nations, as well as individuals, have scrambled for its possession.

"The most prominent reason for the shortage has been the tendency to hoard money in Europe and India. It is estimated that in India alone $400,000,000 has been withdrawn from the world's circulating medium by the people, who are frugal, economical to the highest degree and who have no use for banks in prosperous times, literally bury their money in the ground to await the time of famine and drought. Because of the war in the Balkans, threatening the peace of entire Europe, a similar, if not larger amount has been withdrawn, and hoarded, leaving the banks almost empty.

"New York was the cheapest money market in the world early in 1913 and Europe turned here to replenish its coffers and took away $100,000,000, since which time we have been cramped for money. Added to this the agitation and debate incident to the passage of the tariff bill, an unsettled condition of business became general. The effect of the tariff bill on our industries cannot be estimated until our manufacturers have had an opportunity of competing with foreign manufacturers.

"The agitation of the monetary and banking system of the nation in connection with the passage of the currency bill caused feelings of uncertainty and it is reassuring to know that the question is finally settled. While it is the opinion of bankers that the bill contains some fundamental errors, which may ultimately prove dangerous to the financial welfare of the country, it is now law and the bankers should, and undoubtedly will get squarely behind the measure and do everything in their power to make possible the success of its workings.

"The problems connected with control of public utilities by commissions have been another uncertainty cause. So long as the commissions have lowered rates, they have received the plaudits of the people, but these rates have already been lowered in many instances to a point where it is a question whether the tariff allowed will provide for the maintenance and improvement of these utilities."

Brief mention was made of the heavy loss sustained by the citrus growers caused by the freeze of last winter, the passing of the dividend of the Union Oil Company stock, $15,000,000 of which is held in Southern California; the upheaval in the affairs of the Los Angeles Investment Company, involving many millions and having a tendency to create a false impression of conditions in Los Angeles. It has been proven that the attitude of the Los Angeles Realty Board, as at one time expressed, in favor of the enactment of an efficient Blue Sky law was correct.

Referring to the stories printed regarding the unemployed Mr. Jess declared that they were exaggerated and that even though business had been at its best there would have been more than a normal number of men unemployed. The factors causing this condition were due to the completion of the aqueduct, putting 4000 to 5000 men out of employment; the dismissal of a similar number with the completion of the Big Creek power construction of the Pacific Light and Power Company, and the influx of thousands of refugees from across the Mexican border, and yet, despite these things, the speaker showed that Los Angeles has met with steady growth in population, increase in building permits over all other years and was prosperous in other ways. A decrease in deposits amounting to $11,000,000 caused the banks considerable trouble and criticism from those who did not realize this.

"We are now on the threshold of a new year," continued Mr. Jess, "the outlook for which seems bright throughout the world. Peace in Europe and settlement of the currency issue, which has given people the confidence to believe that further upheavals will be almost impossible, are important measures for effecting the welfare of the nation. The changed attitude of the government in the regulation of 'Big Business,' because of the willingness of the trusts to abide with the Sherman act, will go far toward restoring confidence.

"Locally, conditions are excellent, with a bumper citrus crop, seasonal rains and other causes. The opening of the Panama Canal will bring more farmers and tens of thousands of new settlers affording development of our dormant valleys. The San Francisco and San Diego expositions in 1915 will make thousands of living advertising mediums for Southern California and our great State.

"The most profitable question we can ask today is: 'What can we do to help?' and our answer should be co-operation; the encouragement of our industries; the increasing of the pay rolls and trust in the bankers with the feeling that they will loan the funds under their control as freely as conservatism may permit."

How New Tariff Law Works

Treasury officials who expected to see the revenues fall off about $45,000,000 a year under the workings of the new tariff law, have changed their belief and now declare that this estimate is excessive. There were some who predicted the falling off would not amount to more than $26,000,000 a year, which would give the Government $9,000,000 more than was counted upon for 1914. Customs revenue fell off more than $4,000,000 during November, but for December figures just out show the decrease over December, 1912, was only about $2,700,000. Although Christmas business may account for the increase over November this year, it was pointed out the normal decrease from now on will run about $3,000,000 monthly.

The total Treasury disbursements for December amounted to $61,894,049, compared with $62,698,269 for December, 1912, but the total excess of disbursements over receipts in December was nearly $2,000,000 greater than in November. The net balance in the Treasury general fund on December 31 was $11,854,317, and the grand total of assets in the Treasury, $2,038,864,977.

$10,000,000,000 Farm Yield

There are six million tillers of the soil in the United States. During the year 1913 the products which they produced amounted to ten billion dollars, a net income for them of five million dollars. It was a record year for farmers, the most successful one in so far as crop value is concerned, in the history of husbandry in America. All this from 6,600,000 farms in the country. These figures come from the Department of Agriculture. This successful year brought forth $6,100,000,000 worth of crop, of which $2,896,000,000 were represented by cereals alone and $3,650,000,000 worth of animals sold and slaughtered and animal products. The value of the 1913 crop is twice as great as that of 1899; more than a billion dollars over that of 1909, and substantially greater than 1912. Of all the crops, however, it is estimated that 52 per cent will remain on farms where they were produced and that 20 per cent of the animal production will remain. On that basis the cash income is estimated by the Department of Agriculture at $5,847,000,000.

Corn, with a value of 1,692,000,000, comprised 28 per cent of the value of all crops, although the volume was under the record. The other principal crops with values are given in the order in which they come: Cotton, $798,000,000; hay, $797,000,000; wheat—the largest crop ever raised in this country—$610,000,000; oats, $440,000,000; potatoes, $228,000,000; tobacco, $122,000,000; barley, $96,000,000; sweet potatoes, $43,000,000; sugar beets, $36,000,000; Louisiana cane sugar, $29,000,000; rye, $26,000,000; rice, $22,000,000; flax seed, $21,000,000; hops, $15,000,000; buckwheat, $10,000,000.

"In quantity of estimated production, the record has been broken by wheat, rye, rice, sugar beets, beet sugar and the total of beet and cane sugar," says the report. "Of the remaining crops, oats, barley, cotton and hops have been exceeded twice in production. The estimated productions of the other crops of which separate account was made, were relatively low. The value of the crops of 1913 is high. A new high record in estimated value is made by the total of cereals and separately by cotton, corn, cotton seed, tobacco and sugar beets. Dairy products of 1913 are estimated at more than $814,000,000. Eggs and fowls have an estimated value more than $578,000,000.

"The wool productions of 1913, estimated at $304,000,000 pounds, was over $51,000,000.

"The common phenomenon of record yield and crop value below the record, and of record crop value with low production is presented by more than half a dozen of the crops of 1913. If the farmer gets a high price, perhaps a very high price per bushel or other unit of quantity in case of a crop of low production, on the whole, he usually gets low prices for the crops which he produces in abundance.

"The prices of fourteen principal crops average about 20.2 per cent higher than a year ago, and 4.6 higher than two years ago. Their total values average about 3.8 per cent higher than a year ago, and 7.6 per cent higher than two years ago.

"Special reports concerning the sub-tropical fruits of Southern California and Florida indicate, in the form of percentages, the estimated production of these fruits compared with a full crop. In California, the olive crop of 1913 was 80 per cent of a full crop, the figs 74 per cent, and 1911 being respectively 64 per cent and 87 per cent. Table grapes were produced in California to the extent of 83 per cent of a full crop in 1913, as compared with 89 per cent in 1912 and 85 per cent in 1911. The orange crop of California in 1913 was 80 per cent of a full crop—a low production, due to adverse weather. In Florida the orange crop of 1913 was 100 per cent, in other words, it was equal to a full crop in comparison with which the crop of 1912 is represented by 125 and the crop of 1911 by 66.

"The lemon crop of California suffered with the oranges and amounted to only 57 per cent of a full crop in 1913, against which is 95 per cent of a full crop in 1912 and 92 per cent in 1911. The grapefruit crop of Florida in 1913 was 74 per cent of a full crop, compared with 105 per cent in 1912, and 57 per cent in 1911. In Florida 92 per cent of a full crop was the production of limes in 1913, compared with 75 per cent of a full crop in 1912, and also in 1911.

"The value of the agricultural exports of domestic production in the fiscal year 1913, was $1,123,021,469, an amount which has not before been equaled. The re-exports, otherwise called the exports of foreign agricultural products, are estimated at $12,000,000. The so-called balance of trade in agricultural products is in favor of the exports of domestic farm products by $296,000,000.

"During the fiscal year of 1913 over 166,000,000 pounds of beef and its products were exported, but this quantity included only somewhat more than 7,000,000 pounds of fresh beef. The quantity of exports of beef and its products has rapidly declined from 733,000,000 pounds in 1906. The exports of pork and its products in 1913 amounted to 964,000,000 pounds, a quantity that is exceeded by the average for the preceding twenty-three years, and with few exceptions by the exports of each of these years.

"The census reports indicate that in 1909 the total amount of farm wages paid to farm laborers was $651,611,287. This is almost double the cost in 1899, which was $357,391,930.

"However desirable production on farms may appear to be from the consumers' standpoint, it does not follow that such increased production would result in any increase in the cash income per farm or per capita of farm population, or that prices paid by consumers would be any lower," says the report. "Had the total production in 1913 equaled or exceeded the 1912 production, it seems probable that the cash income per farm would not have been greater and might have been less than in 1912; but it is extremely doubtful whether the cost to the consumer would have been any less because retail prices are promptly raised on a prospect of under-production, but are very slow to decline if there is over-production.

"The high prices paid by consumers, ranging from 5 to nearly 500 per cent, in some cases more than the farmer receives, indicate that there is plenty of room for lowering the cost of farm products to consumers and at the same time largely increasing the cash income per farm without increasing farm production.

"This condition is undoubtedly a marketing problem which will have to be solved by better organizations of farmers and improved methods of marketing."

New Federal Reserve Act

Copies of the Federal Reserve Act and the resolution to be adopted by banks which wish to enter the system and of the blank drawn by the organization committees for use of applicants for membership, were mailed Monday to every National bank in the United States. There are 7500 national banks in the country and since the time limit for their entrance into the system was set by Congress at sixty days, Treasury officials have devoted all their energy to give them this sort of formal notification of the enactment of the law. The other 35,000 banks of the United States will be notified as soon as the national bank list has been completed. There is no time limit upon banks of the latter classification.

Automobiles in America

The number of automobiles registered in the United States for 1913 was 1,128,000. New York leads, with California second. Nevada closes the list.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The price of citrus fruit has been steadily declining with the fair weather and the size of the crop this year. In addition to the decline, the fruit is also of extra fine quality. Yesterday the top price on fancy navel oranges was $2. Unpacked stock is selling as low as $1. Lemons have been coming down and are now worth $3 per box on the best while the juice lemons are selling as low as $1.25. Grapefruit remains fairly steady as do tangerines and for both of these varieties there has been an exceptionally good call. Limes are down to $1.25 a basket and are local.

There are no great changes in the apple market, the quotation on this fruit being on the rise if anything. Many varieties are cleaning up and there is a shortening of the choice. Bellefleurs, best Watsonville stock, are holding at $2. Gano apples are the cheapest, selling at $1.75 as an average. Red apples are all holding around $2.25.

The Register's Clearing House for Big Bargains

Young Men to the Front

Henry E. Veenschoten of Santa Ana and Sidney E. Saunby, of Tustin, two enterprising young men, have each bought land in the Santa Ana Yucapa Orchards Company No. 2, on the south mesa in the Yucapa Valley, and will proceed to set the land to wine-grapes and Rose Beauties. They have also leased one hundred and thirty acres in another part of the valley which they will at once prepare and plant to beans, for which the soil and climate are well adapted. They are now assembling their outfit and will go to the valley next week.

These young men see clearly the fine opportunity in the valley. A goodly number of young men who went to the valley two and three years ago have made good and there are still many fine opportunities.

Such splendid land, under such a magnificent modern irrigation system, and favorable climatic conditions, will not be long on the market. Fasten on to some of it while the prices are low, the payments easy at 6 per cent.

Anyhow, go with us on an automobile trip, up in the morning, back in the evening, through Corona, Riverside and Redlands and up to the 3000 foot elevation and see the magnificent development. It will do you good for what you will see and learn. Only 64 miles from Santa Ana. Small or large tracts. We go every day.

TEARING DOWN OLD STRUCTURE

Work of Destruction Preliminary to that of Construction

With all the rapidity that weather and other conditions permit, the old Spurgeon block at the corner of Fourth and Sycamore is being torn down preparatory to the construction of a four-story building in its place.

The Spurgeon Realty Company stores on Sycamore street have all been occupied, and business life there has settled down just about as though radical changes in location had not been made recently.

It is the intention of R. L. Bisby, manager of the Spurgeon company, to hasten the work as rapidly as possible. That same policy was followed in the construction of the two-story building at the corner of Third and Sycamore, and that building has been completed for nearly two weeks, while other buildings commenced about the same time are not yet ready for the finishers.

IRRIGATION COMPANY IN NEW QUARTERS

Orange Post: The Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Company's office was moved on Saturday from its temporary location in the Union Mercantile Company's store to the handsome new building on North Glassell street, just completed as permanent headquarters for the company.

Though many of the stockholders think the building too small, it is conveniently arranged and handsomely finished and large enough to serve the present needs of the company fairly well.

The front of the building is occupied by the office of the secretary and

WITH A SPLENDID RAINFALL THE YEAR 1914 IS GOING TO BE MARKED BY PROSPERITY

Rains of the last week are another proof that 1914 is going to be one of the greatest years in the history of Orange county.

With six and a half inches of moisture soaked into the ground since January 14 to a depth of several feet, there is no reason why this county will have a single failure in crops. Of course, some more rains will be needed, and there is no question but that they will come all in good season, for Nature is smiling upon this favored section, a habit that Nature has.

Oranges and lemons are in fine trim. Celery is bringing a good price. The sugar beets have been planted or soon will be planted, and the rains insure the growers good crops. That means money, indeed, for the sugar beets are contracted for per ton before the seeds are put in the ground. Grain growers are tickled to death, for they are sure to have a good yield this year.

Lima bean growers will not plant until next May, but the moisture that will insure them a crop is in the ground right now.

The plowman is busy. If he is not busy today he will be just as soon as his ground dries up a little. As he follows the furrow, he will wear a smile of contentment. Contentment is a marked characteristic of Orange county people, but just now the smile is broad among us.

The year 1913 was a mighty good year in this wonderful county, but 1914 is going to be better for farmer, merchant and the man who works for wages.

his assistants. Back of this is the directors' room and at the rear is the assembly room for the stockholders' meetings. This room and that of the directors can be thrown into one by trials; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasal discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.—Advertisement.

means of a sliding partition. The officers of the company will take great satisfaction in having a permanent and convenient place for the transaction of their business.

GARDEN GROVE NEEDS A PACKING HOUSE

Garden Grove News: It is beginning to be apparent to many of the Garden Grove growers that a local packing house is needed. Great quantities of walnuts go out of this section to be packed at other places, which might just as well be handled here.

The orange is coming to its own in the Garden Grove section as never before and should be handled at home. Beans could also be handled and fitted for the market right here where they are grown.

It has been suggested that the Santa Fe railway be asked to run a spur track across from near Anaheim to tap this whole section and also go down toward Huntington Beach after the celery and sugar beets.

One point raised against a packing house is that there are better freight facilities and rates elsewhere, but it has been urged that this can be overcome by the right methods.

LOOKING OVER THE REGISTER BUILDING

A. R. Smith of Orange was in Santa Ana this week looking over some of the two-story brick buildings here. He examined the Register building from basement up, and was highly pleased with its design and construction. Mr. Smith is interested in the recent purchase of an eighty-foot frontage on South Glassell street, Orange, adjoining the Grote block, and upon this purchase a two-story brick building is to be erected.

BOND ELECTION FOR $50,000

Orange News: The Orange grammar school board, in session at the Glassell street school this afternoon, voted to call a bond election in the amount of $50,000 for the construction of an intermediate high school for the use of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades of the district.

The date of the election was set for Saturday, February 28. It is planned to erect the new building on the Glassell school site, moving the old building back to Lemon street. The new building will face on Glassell street.

It is believed that this plan will meet with general approval over the district, and that in consequence there will be but little opposition to the bond issue.

The need for additional school facilities is shown by the fact that at the present time the schools are so crowded that about forty first-grade pupils are now housed in a small building on East Maple avenue. The normal growth of the schools is in the vicinity of 125 per year and with this increase next year to face, provision must be made for more school room.

The Glassell street building is not to be retired from service, but will be continued in use.

County Superintendent Mitchell met with the school board and Principal Smith this afternoon.

SCHOOL GARDENS ARE BEING PLANTED

Anaheim Herald: Members of the agricultural class of the Anaheim grammar school are busy at work preparing a tract of ground on West Center street, ready to plant vegetable gardens.

The ground, which has been well tilled, is being marked off into small plots, and the plots staked off for individual gardens.

Each student is given a garden plot of his own, 6x12 feet, and he is expected to plant the seed and care for the garden, his name being placed at the corner of his plot. A pathway divides the various plots. There are 130 individual plots and ground reserved for larger or special plots which will be used to grow vegetables.

It is expected that tomorrow the planting of seeds and the transplanting of some vegetables, which have already been grown in the lath house at the grammar school, will commence. Lettuce, carrots, onions, radishes, beets and spinach will be planted at present, and later on beans and peas will be grown.

The agricultural movement is considered one of the most practical that has been introduced into the grammar schools for several years. Not only the boys in the seventh and eighth grades are taking up the study, but the girls are also busy "farming." Some of the girls were such successful gardeners last year, which was the first of the study, that their mothers purchased their vegetables instead of patronizing the vegetable vender.

It is the aim this season to grow sufficient vegetables for use in the cooking department at the Fremont school.

The study of plant life as well as an hour spent in the open air is very beneficial to both teacher and student, and has proved to be a most restful and profitable study and occupation. For the restless or nervous student and the worn-out teacher the school gardens make a great change, and they will return to the school-room ready to settle down to study.

ARE FEEDING BEET PULP AND BEAN STRAW

Anaheim Gazette: Three hundred head of cattle are corralled near the Anaheim sugar factory, having been sent here from Compton to be fattened upon beet pulp, molasses and bean straw, the straw being shipped here from Smeltzer. The stock will remain here until spring at which time they will be sent to the Los Angeles markets. J. M. Snodgrass of Los Angeles is owner of the cattle, and makes frequent trips to this city in the interest of them.
